

Expert Workshop on Personal Data Protection

Date: Monday, 7th February 2011

Time: 13:30 – 16:00

Venue: Hotel Podgorica, Bul. Sv. Petra Cetinjskog 1, Podgorica, conference room

13:30 Prof. Dr. Hannes Tretter, University Vienna, Director of Ludwig Boltzmann
Institute of Human Rights

Introduction: Why do we need data protection? Current and forthcoming challenges in democratic societies

13:50 Nataša Pirc, Junior Project Leader, Information Commissioner of the Republic of Slovenia

Experiences with establishing a data protection authority – what do public sector institutions have to expect?

14:10 Aleksa Ivanović, Member of the Council of the Montenegrin Agency for Personal Data Protection

Personal data protection and free access to information in the Montenegrin context

14:30 - 14:50 Coffee Break

14:50 Dr. Waltraut Kotschy, Project Leader, former Executive Member of the Austrian Data Protection Commission

How might the EU data protection framework change? – Overview over COM(2010) 609 final, A comprehensive approach on personal data protection in the European Union of Nov. 2010

15:10 Christof Tsohl, Legal Researcher at Ludwig Boltzmann Institute of Human Rights

The bridge between technique and law in data protection matters

15:30 Discussion

16:00 End

Simultaneous interpretation into Montenegrin will be provided.

The event is funded by the EU.

It is organised by the Twinning Project "Implementation of Personal Data Protection Strategy".

An EU-funded project

*Kralja Nikole 2, 81000 Podgorica
Tel. +382 20 621 50
e-mail: lukas.gundermann@humanrights.at*