

Roundtable on the Right to Remedy and Reparations for Victims of Torture National Obligations, International Standards and Best Practices

Hotel Damas, Bishkek, 29 May 2015

Moderation: MP. Mrs. A. Mambetalieva

Time	Session	Speakers
0900 - 0915	Registration and introduction to scope of the workshop	MP.A. Mambetalieva, BIM, TSCP, Bir Duino
0915 - 1030	I. The right to remedy and reparations for victims of torture: a. Recommendations and observations on the Kyrgyz Republic by UN treaty bodies and UPR a. Scope under international law c. Scope under national law	TSPC (Mr. Daniele Rumolo) BIM (Ms. Tiphane Crittin) Bir Duino (Mr. Valerian Vahitov) Human Rights Advocacy Centre (Mr Jenish Toroev)
1030 - 1045	Coffee break
1045 - 1230	II. Implementation of views of the UN Human Rights Committee and development of advocacy strategy with national stakeholders: a. Methodology of advocacy strategy b. Cases involving Kyrgyzstan and responses by the State c. Stakeholder analysis; public consultation of NAP d. Working groups – development of advocacy strategies	BIM (Ms. Andrea Schuechner) OSJI (Ms. Alexandra Cherkasenko) Plenary
1230 – 1330	Lunch
1330 - 1430	Discussion of results of working groups	Moderation: MP. Mrs. A. Mambetalieva, member of the Jogorku Kenesh Committee on Human Rights, Constitutional Legislation, and State Structure.
1430 - 1445	Coffee break
1445 - 1630	III. Filing individual cases

This project is made possible thanks to a grant of the European Union made available by the European Instrument for Democracy and Human Rights which aims at providing support to democracy and human rights in non-EU countries..

Ludwig Boltzmann Institute
Human Rights

	a. Documentation according to the Istanbul Protocol: practical experiences b. How to submit individual cases to the UN Human Rights Committee	Southern Regional Centre for Social and Health Rights (Mr. Umar Shadiev) OHCHR (Ms. Shushan Khachyan)
1630 – 1700	Conclusion	MP Mrs. A. Mambetalieva, Bir Duino, BIM, TSPC

This project is made possible thanks to a grant of the European Union made available by the European Instrument for Democracy and Human Rights which aims at providing support to democracy and human rights in non-EU countries..